"Aspiring author with a true story to tell from the start of his life, about how to retain your happiness with what you have"
- John Hayman

In this sequence of lifechanging events, Jason realizes his conscience is hooked on terrible tendencies, memories, and enemies. As he grows up, learning how to deal with losing his mother at an early age, and taking charge and starting the next chapter in his life. Using skills he's learned his whole life, he is blessed to come from being homeless, growing up with his Mom out of a flatbed truck, moving to the border of Los Altos, attending schooling since the year of Kindergarten.
