An audience participatory screening, a Rocky Horror Midnight Showing is a collection of freaks yelling at the screen, dressing up, throwing props, and becoming part of the film. If you have never seen Rocky Horror and you come, don't be afraid, you are in for a treat. Enjoy a night of musical numbers, science fiction, and temptation. Bring a sense of humor, a festive outfit (that obeys local standards), and the props you can find in our props list. Enjoy... and enter at your own risk.
